There are not right or a wrong answer to the following questions, and your honesty in answering them is appreciated.

1. What was your previous religious upbringing and/or influence? Why did you leave this upbringing?
2. What interests you about Wicca in that you wish to study it?
3. What does the word "Wicca" mean to you and how do you perceive Wiccan practices?

4. List any books you have read about Wicca and/or the occultic arts, denoting any favourites, most influential, and even your least favourite.

5. Detailed any previous instruction received, including other groups, on-line school tuition, workshops, etc that may be of relevance.

6. What is your perception of Deity?

7. What does “Keep pure your highest ideals” mean to you?

8. Why are you interested in training with respect to a more traditional approach to Wicca as opposed to eclecticism?

9. As the training offered by the Temple of the Dark Moon includes other practices such as ceremonial magick and the Qabalah, do you have any reservations about such practices?

10. Why do you want to train with the Temple of the Dark Moon?

I acknowledge that I have read “What the Temple of the Dark Moon looks for in an Applicant” and can honestly agree to most of those statements. I further acknowledge that I agree or can align myself with the ethics and philosophies of the Temple of the Dark Moon.
