

The Wytch's Circle

The Wytch's Circle is a specifically designed eight part intensive course for those people who may already have some ritual experience (either solitary or within a group), and who are seeking more advanced instruction in order of further their own practice. Alternatively, the novice who would like to put what they have read into practice, ensuring that they have a solid foundation.

Through the exposure of various magickal and well as esoteric techniques, the emphasis contained within The Wytch's Circle is on working ritual and magick within a group format in order to create a magickal egregore that will enable each participate to tap into the true concept of "walking between the worlds".

Experience for yourself the power of ritual and magick.

This course will include:

- Raising energy within a group context,
- Developing a relationship with Elemental forces,
- Creating and working with a magickal egregore,
- Elemental placement and working with the energies in the Southern Hemisphere,
- Exploring Hermetic and ceremonial magickal techniques,
- Creating sigil and image magick,
- "Walking between the worlds",
- Power of sound and vibration,
- Samhain rite within a coven format,
- And much more.
